SUBMISSION DEADLINE: June 30, 11:59pm

Rocky River Public Library is looking for artists for our fifth annual Pride Fest celebration!

Pride Fest is a family-friendly celebration of PRIDE for the LGBTQIA2S+ community, their families, friends, allies, and neighbors.

Independent creators, artists, crafters, makers, professional writers, illustrators, and small press in NEO and the surrounding area are invited to sell their original, unique, and handmade wares in Artist Alley at Pride Fest. Great for first year vendors!

All artists are welcome to apply, but preference will be given to LGBTQIA2S+ focused art and artists.

- All sales must be handled by the artist
- Everything sold must be the work of the creator(s) at the table
- No AI art, no illegal merchandise, and no 18+ art is permitted
- The artist is responsible for transport of their work to and from Rocky River Public Library and all related expenses
- Each artist must provide their own table, chairs, and tent, as the event will take place outside

Scan the QR to fill out the submission form!

There is no application fee or table fee. Space is limited. Must be 18 years old or older.
